account of the 2003 final in Johannesburg. Edward Griffiths then goes back to the beginning - the genesis of the one-day game with the launch of the Gillette Cup in 1963 and traces the development of the game over four decades. There are some accounts of the first and subsequent Cricket World Cup tournaments which highlight the changes in the game over the years, heroic performances, triumphs and defeats.

The accreditation of prior learning (APL) is a practical way for adults to receive qualifications for knowledge they already have. This handbook explains how APL can help adults receive qualifications to help them change jobs, be promoted, start an NVQ course or return to work. The book begins by providing a definition of APL and background information in the context of the UK adult education and training framework. It also explains how the scheme works in Europe and what might happen when the single European market is completed. The book contains worksheets for the reader to identify relevant experiences, exercises to help the reader practice assignment tests, and advice on how to put together a portfolio to prove existing experience.	Journal Springer Create the foundation for a successful career in the theatrical and media make-up industry with this new textbook, endorsed by City & Guilds for theatrical, special effects and hair and media make-up artistry qualifications at Levels 2 and 3. - Study with confidence, with content covering the latest qualifications and industry standards, including the 6010 specifications.	- Get ready to work in make-up, film, TV or theatre with handy hints from experienced professionals. - Hone your practical skills with hundreds of photographs showcasing creative ideas from look books and industry portfolios. - Understand complex topics such as anatomy and physiology with ease with simple explanations and all of the important terminology explained. - Prepare
