From the late seventeenth century until the Dutch conquest of the early twentieth Century Bali was ruled by a set of competing kingdoms. This study of the Balinese text Kidung Malat is the first work in Indonesian historical studies to analyse the main ideology of these Balinese kingdoms. It does so by demonstrating how the performance and presentation of the text presented an image of the ideal prince to both rulers and subjects. The Kidung Malat exemplifies courtly ideology through its descriptions of the adventures of kings and princes from the era of the medieval kingdoms of East Java. It is one of the longest and most complex of a set of narratives called Pañji stories, which originated in East Java and spread throughout Southeast Asia. This book is also the first extensive historical analysis of a Pañji story, combining textual analysis with the study of the gambuh dance-drama in which the Malat is performed, and comparing these forms with paintings and other manifestations of the text.

Concise Encyclopedia of Languages of the World is an authoritative single-volume reference resource comprehensively describing the major languages and language families of the world. It will provide full descriptions of the phonology, semantics, morphology, and syntax of the world's major languages, giving insights into their structure, history and development, sounds, meaning, structure, and language family, thereby both highlighting their diversity for comparative study, and contextualizing them according to their genetic relationships and regional distribution. Based on the highly acclaimed and award-winning Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics, this volume will provide an edited collection of almost 400 articles throughout which a representative subset of the world's major languages are unfolded and explained in up-to-date terminology and authoritative interpretation, by the leading scholars in linguistics. In highlighting the diversity of the world's languages — from the thriving to the endangered and extinct — this work will be the first point of call to any language expert interested in this huge area. No other single volume will match the extent of language coverage or the authority of the contributors of Concise Encyclopedia of Languages of the World. * Extraordinary breadth of coverage: a comprehensive selection of just under 400 articles covering the world's major languages, language families, and classification structures, issues and disputes * Peerless quality: based on 20 years of academic development on two editions of the leading reference resource in linguistics, Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics * Unique authorship: 350 of the world's leading experts brought together for one purpose * Exceptional editorial selection, review and validation process: Keith Brown and Sarah Ogilvie act as first-tier guarantors for article quality and coverage * Compact and affordable: one-volume format makes this suitable for personal study at any institution interested in areal, descriptive, or comparative language study - and at a fraction of the cost of the full encyclopedia

Balinese texts, temples, theatre performances and rituals, in seven essays, are placed into specific political contexts in an effort to gain a deeper understanding of the changing relations between state and society on the complex island of Bali. How have local communities been linked to various claimants to state sovereignty through Bali's history? What have been the forms and functions of the institutions that have joined peasants with kings and bureaucrats? How have these institutions changed and in what ways have they remained the same over the centuries? How have these relationships been represented by Balinese to themselves? And, how should research on these issues be carried further forward? The contributors to this volume—I Gusti Ngurah Bagus, Hildred Geertz, Henk Schulte Nordholt, Raechelle Rubinstein, David J. Stuart Fox, Adrian Vickers, and Carol Warren—represent the disciplines of anthropology, literature and history, but all of them cut creatively across disciplinary lines. In contrast to previous Bali research, these studies put more emphasis on historical background and pay close attention to local Balinese perspectives. Early and colonial history form the frame of several papers, while others deal with major changes in the recent past. While each paper taken alone has its own specialized concerns, if the set is read as a series an outline can be discerned, not only of Balinese history and culture, but also of some characteristic features of the new research on Bali being carried out in the 1980s. The interdisciplinary approach of this volume makes it challenging reading for a wider audience of Southeast Asianists.

In 1999, Indonesia embarked on a reform of regional governance that brings self-governance to rural districts and municipalities, i.e., the administrative and democratic capacity needed to apply basic services like healthcare, national legislation and environment policies. This edited volume is the first book, which not only deals with the 1999 legislation but also shows how the deficiencies and contradictions of this legislation reduced implementation between 2001 and 2004 to a try-out. The book also discusses the adaptations that were the focus of the debate on the revision of the 1999 legislation that resulted in the 2004 update legislation and the amendment of the 1945 Constitution. Anthropological case studies of five provinces complement and deepen the findings of the more general survey reports.

TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state-of-the-art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting-edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations, including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes, which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints. High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing.

Kamus bahasa Indonesia-Bali Kepustakaan Populer Gramedia Indonesia sejak dahulu telah mengimpor aneka ragam agama, kesusastraan, ilmu, teknik, dan berbagai jenis produk peradaban lainnya – yang berasal dari India, Timur Tengah, Tiongkok, serta Eropa – yang kemudian diolah, disesuaikan, dikembangkan, sehingga menjadi bagian utuh dari kebudayaan Indonesia. Semua ini terjadi melalui proses penerjemahan. Maka jelas, terjemahan merupakan salah satu fenomena terpenting dalam sejarah Indonesia. Buku ini merangkum 65 karangan oleh penulis Indonesia dan asing tentang terjemahan yang pernah dilakukan dari semua bahasa asing (Sansekerta, Parsi, Arab, Urdu, Tionghoa, Jepang, dan beberapa bahasa Eropa) ke dalam sembilan bahasa lokal (Jawa, Melayu, Sunda, Bali, Sasak, Aceh, Batak, Bugis, dan Makassar), dalam segala bidang selama sepuluh abad (dari abad ke-9 sampai ke-20). Usaha raksasa ini, yang baru pertama kali dilakukan, merupakan sebuah tonggak yang amat penting bagi penulisan sejarah Indonesia.

The 3rd International Conference on Law, Education and Social Sciences (ICLSSE) 2021 is an international forum to disseminate knowledge and research development among researchers, scholars, professionals, and those interested in research interests Law and Social Sciences and Social Education. This conference was organized by the Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, Universitas Pendidikan Ganesha. The theme of this third conference: "Social Resilience in a Post-Pandemic Era". No doubt that in the Pandemic Corona era, we all together experienced coronavirus outbreaks in the socio-cultural and economic life of the community. As an academician, we all have to study how in this new normal era we are trying to increase socio-cultural, socio-psychological, and socio-economic resilience of the society through various innovations that can be developed together in research activities in the field of social sciences and law in general. So this conference can become a good vehicle for us to share all experiences and ideas about increasing social resilience in a post-pandemic era from many perspectives of Law, Social Science, and Social Education in general.

"Membaca buku [ini] mengasyikkan untuk saya. Lancar dan mengalir seperti membaca ceritera. Story-telling, begitulah gayanya. [P. Swantoro] benar-benar seorang sejarawan, yang cermat terhadap sumber. Setiap kali muncul suatu peristiwa atau komentar bukan saja disebutkan oleh siapa, tetapi juga sekaligus dalam penerbitan apa, siapa pengarangnya, siapa penerbitnya, tahun penerbitan, dan halaman berapa. -- Jakob Oetama, Pemimpin Umum Harian Kompas Karya ini bukan sekedar kisah seorang bibliofili seperti Philobiblon karya Richard de Bury, uskup Durban, yang terbit pada 1473, tetapi terlebih merupakan lantunan kegirangan bekerja, seManga, Manhua & Manhwat, dan gairah hidup sang pencerita berkat pesona buku. Memang, bukan tanpa alasan kalau karya ini diberi judul Dari Buku ke Buku Sambung Menyambung Menjadi Satu. Bukan lagi buku per buku yang penting, melainkan perasaan, kesadaran, dan pengertian baru yang lebih kuat tentang kehidupan, yang isumbangkan oleh seluruh buku. Tidak kurang daripada 200 buku diceritakan di sini dengan cara yang demikian rupa sehingga tampil seolah-olah pribadi yang hidup: bagaimana buku lahir, berkembang, bergerak dan menggerakkan sang pencerita dalam kegiatannya sehari-hari. Di latar-belakang masih tersembunyi sekitar tiga-ribuan buku lain milik pribadi sang pencerita yang memancarkan pengaruhnya, kendati tidak bisa dapat tempat lagi untuk diceritakan. Sang pencerita hendak memindahkan sebagian buku itu ke museum khusus di daerah tempat lahirnya, Yogyakarta, dan sebagian lagi di rumahnya, dengan harapan akan dimanfaatkan oleh umum. Lewat karyanya ini ia terlebih dulu ingin bercerita kepada cucu-cucunya, dan dengan itu kepada generasi mereka.

In Storytelling in Bali, Hildred Geertz analyzes over 200 texts of popular stories dictated in 1936 by the painters of Batuan, Bali. The tales reveal strong ambivalences in the tellers regarding the magical powers of kings, priests and healers.
