 The Reverend Clarence Larkin was one of the most widely influential pop theologians of the early twentieth century: his works are the source of many of the "prophecies" and "truths" end-times Christians hold to even today. This stupendous 1918 book—perhaps his greatest work—is the result of more than 30 years' worth of, the author informs us, "careful and patient study of the Prophetic Scriptures." Fully illustrated by charts describing God's plan for humanity, Dispensational Truth covers: Pre-Millennialism the Second Coming of Christ the present evil world the Satanic trinity the world's seven great crises prophetic chronology the threefold nature of man the Book of Revelation five fingers pointing to Christ the False Prophet and much more. American Baptist pastor and author CLARENCE LARKIN (1850-1924) was born in Pennsylvania, and later set up his ministry there. He wrote extensively and popularly on a wide range of Biblical and theological matters.

In an interview with Christianity Today in 2012, Ed Stetzer shared that according to LifeWay research among young adults who had attended church regularly for at least a year in high school, 70% stop attending regularly for at least a year between ages 18-22. However, 35% of these had returned to attending twice a month or more by the time they were surveyed for the study. This means that about 4 out of 10 kids leave the church and NEVER RETURN. Here is how leading experts describe our church kids today: They are unarmed and incapable of defending their faith. They possess a faith that cannot withstand the scrutiny of trials or intellectual questions. They have a shallow belief system. They lack a robust faith. They haven't learned how to think. They are embarrassingly ignorant of our faith. Truth Matters is written directly to this audience, arming them with well-reasoned responses to the accusations that are most likely to appear in their lives, either as upcoming lecture notes and test questions or as inner qualms and questions. Things like: What gives the Bible any authority or credibility? Where is God in a world full of suffering? Why should Christianity be any more believable than any other religious system? And many, many more. Easy to read yet loaded with meat and substance, this book is a level-headed reaction to those who equate Christian faith with "blind faith," even those whose subtle or stated goal is to separate students from their religious traditions. Readers will discover the kind of historical information and thinking skills that build a sturdy backbone of confidence in high schoolers and young adults, making them able to defend by "reasoned faith" what the Bible claims as truth. Loosely organized around the theological skepticism of New York Times bestselling author (and southern college educator) Bart Ehrman, this jam-packed counterclaim is a book that parents will want to buy for their kids, a book that youth and student leaders will want to work through one-on-one and in discipleship groups—a book that could prove a lifesaver for young minds and hearts everywhere.

The Book of Daniel is a prophecy given by God to Daniel 600 years before Christ that reaches clear down to the end of earth's history. It is especially applicable to our day, pointing out the immediate future. In The Story of Daniel the Prophet, a few of the interesting facts in regard to God's dealings with His people have been gathered into a simple narrative. This book is the result of much prayerful study. It is sent forth with an earnest prayer, that in the hands of the parents it may be the means of making the study of the Bible in the family a blessing to young and old; and that the teacher in the schoolroom may see precious rays of light flashing from its pages, pointing both teacher and pupil to the Great Divine Teacher. We trust that while its simplicity will attract many who might not be inclined to read a deep argumentative treatise, the most studious will find food for thought, and thus become better acquainted with the character of our Heavenly Father. Those who wish to enter into more comprehensive study, will find that the marginal references open up many veins of precious ore in the deep mines of God's Word. Throughout the entire book the special providence of God over those who are faithful to Him is brought out in clear contrast to the fate of those who ignore His guiding hand. The truth is the same, whether in the history of nations or individuals. As The Story of Daniel the Prophet goes forth on its mission of love for the Great Master, may it prove a blessing to all classes, young and old, rich and poor, learned and unlearned.

This completely new typeset of the monumental 1957 classic contains an extensive historical and theological introduction and detailed notations by George R. Knight, professor of church history at Andrews University.; Originally produced by the Ministerial Association of the General Conference of SDAs, Questions on Doctrine was widely acclaimed and heavily distributed in the late 1950s and early 1960s as a forthright answer to questions from evangelicals about key elements of Adventist doctrine. Controversy regarding the book's position on the nature of Christ and the atonement soon stopped its circulation.; Intended as a complete reference on the book itself, this new edition faithfully reproduces the original text of Questions on Doctrine, with in-text indicators of the original pagings. It includes later important documents that bring the work up to date. The original bibliography is followed by an updated selected bibliography. Commentary on various historical or bibliographic topics is included in new footnotes throughout the text, all while preserving the reading integrity of the original edition.; George Knight's introductory essays provide the background for how the book came about and describe the interaction of the principal players involved in the dispute about a small section of content that shelved this classic work for more than a generation.; This new edition of Question on Doctrine beautifully preserves this outstanding and winsome work of Adventist apologetics to future generations of scholars, laypersons, and critics. It is an essential element of every Adventist library.

"The Lord has shown me that Satan was once an honored angel in heaven, next to Jesus Christ. His countenance was mild, expressive of happiness like the other angels. His forehead was high and broad, and showed great intelligence. His form was perfect. He had noble, majestic bearing. And I saw that when God said to his Son, Let us make man in our image, Satan was jealous of Jesus. He wished to be consulted concerning the formation of man. He was filled with envy, jealousy and hatred. He wished to be the highest in heaven, next to God, and receive the highest honors. Until this time all heaven was in order, harmony and perfect subjection to the government of God."-Ellen G White

Get ready for a challenge! We have compiled 1,500 Questions and Answers on the Bible that are going to show how much, or how little, you, or those you quiz, know about Scripture.

Unfortunately, most will discover "how little" as these quizzes are certainly not designed to be easy. The good news is, that if you keep taking the quizzes over and over again, you will begin to acquire a great deal of knowledge concerning the Scripture. The purpose of these quizzes is not to make anyone feel stupid, but to challenge them to learn more! If you can master all 30 series (1,500 questions) you most likely will know more about the Bible than anyone else you will ever come across. These questions do not call for knowledge of genealogical tables, but of the main Bible characters. They do not call for the details of Jewish history, and not a single date is asked for in all the fifteen hundred questions; but they do insist upon knowledge of the Bible's most significant and interesting events, from cover to cover. The questions are not theological - perhaps some would find them easier if they were, for then they could air their theories; but they call for an acquaintance with the most beautiful and uplifting sentences and passages in all the sixty-six books of the Bible, the inspired wisdom on which all theology is based - or ought to be. How to Use: Use these questions to test yourself, your Sunday School Class, your Youth Group, your Bible Study, your Teachers, your Family, etc... *There are 30 Series with 50 Questions each. *Each question is worth 2 points (multiply the number right x2 and you'll have your score) *You can use the quizzes in any order you want, but we suggest doing one series over and over until you have mastered most of the content. Once you know all 50 questions, move onto the next one.

Beginning with the destruction of Jerusalem and continuing through the persecutions of Christians in the Roman Empire, the apostasy of the Dark Ages, the shining light of the Reformation, and the worldwide religious awakening of the nineteenth century, this volume traces the conflict into the future, to the Second Coming of Jesus and the glories of the earth made new. In this concluding volume, the author powerfully points out the principles involved in the impending conflict and how each person can stand firmly for God and His truth.
