If there is some end of the things we do... will not knowledge of it, have a great influence on life? Shall we not, like archers who have a mark to aim at, be more likely to hit upon what we should? If so, we must try, in outline at least, to determine what it is. —Aristotle

Mortimer Adler, Great Books, Philosophy, Great Ideas Great Ideas of Philosophy is a crash course history lesson in important ideas. The whole point is that there's a red line through the ideas that shaped history, every idea is an action or a reaction to a previous one, going from the Iliad and greek mythology up to now.
